FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Davenport Group Names John Loy Systems Engineer

Saint Paul, MN, January 3, 2012 — Davenport Group, a leader in developing data storage solutions, has named John Loy as its new Systems Engineer.

Mr. Loy, who had been Senior Network Engineer at the South Carolina Attorney General's Office, a longtime customer of Davenport Group, will join their existing engineering team to work in the deployment, migration, and support of the infrastructure equipment at Davenport Group customer sites.

"The expansion of our engineering team reflects our growing business and further strengthens our ability to meet the needs of our customers," noted Sonia St. Charles, Chief Executive Officer of Davenport Group. "We have been working with the South Carolina Attorney General's Office to ensure a smooth transition for both them and John. John possesses a unique perspective as a former customer of Davenport Group, which will, in turn, benefit our customers."

Mr. Loy brings over 20 years of technical experience in the manufacturing, consulting, and government industries to Davenport Group. Most recently, he spent eight years managing the storage networks at the South Carolina Attorney General's Office. While at the South Carolina Attorney General's Office, he taught programming, configuration, and network design courses at Midland Technical College. Mr. Loy has also held positions at the South Carolina Department of Health and Human Services and O.B. One Communications.
