FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Micah Jorgensen Joins Davenport Group's Team of Customer Development Representatives

Saint Paul, MN, November 30, 2017 — Davenport Group, a leading end-to-end solution provider serving customers nationwide, is excited to welcome Micah Jorgensen to their team.

As a Customer Development Representative, Mr. Jorgensen will support the Account Executives at Davenport Group. He'll contribute to the excellent customer service that Davenport Group values as he works directly with customers. Mr. Jorgensen will facilitate productive and positive relationships between Dell EMC teams, Davenport Group teams, and customers. He will report to Brandon Cole, Director of Sales.

Micah Jorgensen joins Davenport Group after years of working at Dell EMC. His extensive experience as a technical sales representative in server, storage, and networking means Mr. Jorgensen has an in-depth knowledge of Dell EMC's product and service portfolio. He has worked with inside and technical sales representative teams at Dell EMC, developing skills in coordinating a variety of groups.

"Micah's skill set with Dell EMC products and services makes him a valuable asset to our new team of Customer Development Representatives," said Brandon Cole, Director of Sales. "We're thrilled to have his technical experience and his customer service expertise in our organization."

Mr. Jorgensen joins a rapidly growing group of Customer Development Representatives as Davenport Group works to strengthen existing customer relationships, and foster new customer partnerships. His experience with Dell EMC's products and services will help him jump right in to support Davenport Group's Account Executives.
